NO HOLLYWOOD SCRIPTWRITER COULD PEN JEFF BOLTON'S REMARKABLE LIFE. As a film producer, talk show host, television personality, author and aviator he has reached millions of people as a powerful and inspiring storyteller. His deep and abiding desire to serve people, coupled with grace, wit, spirit and compassion, have taken him from gritty battlefields and natural disasters to the seats of the world's most extraordinary motor cars and combat aircraft. But, here's the humbling truth about Jeff. He's not Superman, or "that guy" with the perfect life. He's a gritty streetfighter who has endured enormous career setbacks and risen from the mat to become the inspiring person he is today.

He is prominently featured on national media outlets including ABC, NBC, CBS, and FOX, as well as The Rush Limbaugh Program, The Sean Hannity Show, and The Savage Nation. Jeff is also the producer of the groundbreaking documentary film "AMERICA'S MARINE AVIATORS", and author of the new book "VIRTUE: Essential Character Qualities of Authentic People".
